

True/False – If it is False then please correct it to be true

1. Isaac Watts received a penny and asked his mother to buy him a book. _____
2. John Wesley was required to serve in the Royal Navy when he was 18. _____
3. Hans and his wife sent their son, Martin Luther, to school for a medical career. _____
4. John Newton was once known as one of the rudest slave traders to the West Indies. _____
5. Luther was excommunicated and an outlaw but he still wrote hymns like Away in a Manger. _____
6. By the time he was 13, Isaac Watts could speak 5 languages including Hebrew and Latin. _____
7. Amazing Grace was written by Isaac Newton that came from his experience at sea. _____
8. Martin Luther read a copy of the Torah and later translated it from Latin to German. _____
9. Fanny wrote her first gospel song at the age of 12. _____
10. Presidents Adams, Harrison, Polk, Grant, Hayes, and Garfield were friends of Isaac Watts. _____
11. Isaac Watts was also known as the Father of Hymnody. _____
12. Hark! The Herald Angels Sing was written by Charles Wesley. _____
13. All the Way, My Savior Leads Me was written after an answered prayer for money. _____
14. Martin's father was upset when he decided to become a lawyer. _____
15. Followers of the Wesley brothers came to be known as sluggards because of their lifestyle. _____
16. Fanny Crosby was a student and later a teacher at the New York School for the Blind. _____
17. Charles and his brother John Wesley once made a covenant about marriage. _____
18. Joy to the World was written by Martin Luther. _____
19. Fanny Crosby was blind due to a birth defect. _____
20. Charles Wesley had a rough childhood including being born early and a house fire at 2 years old. _____

1. Isaac Watts received a penny and asked his mother to buy him a book. T
2. John ~~Wesley~~ was required to serve in the Royal Navy when he was 18. F
(John Newton)
3. Hans and his wife sent their son, Martin Luther, to school for a ~~medical career~~. F
(law career)
4. John Newton was once known as one of the rudest slave traders to the West Indies. T
5. Luther was excommunicated and an outlaw but he still wrote hymns like Away in a Manger. T
6. By the time he was 13, Isaac Watts could speak 5 languages including Hebrew and Latin. T
7. Amazing Grace was written by ~~Isaac Newton~~ that came from his experience at sea. F
(John Newton)
8. Martin Luther read a copy of the ~~Torah~~ and later translated it from Latin to German. F
(Bible)
9. Fanny wrote her first gospel song at the age of ~~12~~. F
(45)
10. Presidents Adams, Harrison, Polk, Grant, Hayes, and Garfield were friends of ~~Isaac Watts~~. F
(Fanny Crosby)
11. Isaac Watts was also known as the Father of Hymnody. T
12. Hark! The Herald Angels Sing was written by Charles Wesley. T
13. All the Way, My Savior Leads Me was written after an answered prayer for money. T
14. Martin's father was upset when he decided to become a ~~lawyer~~. F (monk)
15. Followers of Wesley brothers came to be known as ~~sluggards~~ because of their lifestyle. F
(Methodists)
16. Fanny Crosby was a student and later a teacher at the New York School for the Blind. T
17. Charles and his brother John Wesley once made a covenant about marriages. T
18. Joy to the World was written by ~~Martin Luther~~. F
(Isaac Watts)
19. Fanny Crosby was blind due to a ~~birth defect~~. F
(doctor's error)
20. Charles Wesley had a rough childhood including being born early and a house fire a 2 years old. T

1. Isaac Watts received a _____ and asked his mother to buy him a book.
a. dime                      b. sixpence                      c. gold coin                      d. penny
2. John Newton was once known as one of the rudest _____ to the West Indies.
a. Slave traders              b. boat captains              c. car salesman              d. card dealers
3. Amazing Grace was written by John Newton that came from his experience at _____.
a. War                      b. sea                      c. church                      d. school
4. All the Way, My Savior Leads Me was written by Fanny Crosby after an answered prayer for _____.
a. friends                      b. clothes                      c. food                      d. money
5. Luther was excommunicated and an _____, but he still wrote hymns like Away in a Manger.
a. Thief                      b. teacher                      c. outlaw                      d. sailor
6. Fanny Crosby was _____ due a doctor's mistake when she was six weeks old.
a. Blind                      b. deaf                      c. mute                      d. paralyzed
7. Joy to the World was written by Isaac Watts who was also known as the _____ of Hymnody.
a. brother                      b. uncle                      c. grandpa                      d. Father
8. Fanny Crosby made friends with many important people including several _____ of our country like Polk, Grant, Harrison, Hayes, and Garfield.
a. soldiers                      b. presidents                      c. lawyers                      d. mayors
9. By the time he was 13, Isaac Watts could speak _____ languages including Hebrew and Latin.
a. 2                      b. 13                      c. 10                      d. 5
10. Hark! The Herald _____ Sing was written by Charles Wesley.
a. Babies                      b. Kings                      c. Angels                      d. Handmaids

1. Isaac Watts received a _____ and asked his mother to buy him a book.
a. dime                      b. sixpence                      c. gold coin                      d. penny
2. John Newton was once known as one of the rudest _____ to the West Indies.
a. Slave traders                      b. boat captains                      c. car salesman                      d. card dealers
3. Amazing Grace was written by John Newton that came from his experience at _____.
a. War                      b. sea                      c. church                      d. school
4. All the Way, My Savior Leads Me was written by Fanny Crosby after an answered prayer for _____.
a. friends                      b. clothes                      c. food                      d. money
5. Luther was excommunicated and an _____, but he still wrote hymns like Away in a Manger.
a. Thief                      b. teacher                      c. outlaw                      d. sailor
6. Fanny Crosby was _____ due a doctor's mistake when she was six weeks old.
a. Blind                      b. deaf                      c. mute                      d. paralyzed
7. Joy to the World was written by Isaac Watts who was also known as the _____ of Hymnody.
a. brother                      b. uncle                      c. grandpa                      d. Father
8. Fanny Crosby made friends with many important people including several _____ of our country like Polk, Grant, Harrison, Hayes, and Garfield.
a. soldiers                      b. presidents                      c. lawyers                      d. mayors
9. By the time he was 13, Isaac Watts could speak _____ languages including Hebrew and Latin.
a. 2                      b. 13                      c. 10                      d. 5
10. Hark! The Herald _____ Sing was written by Charles Wesley.
a. Babies                      b. Kings                      c. Angels                      d. Handmaids